Inventory #15-NXD

Wonderful antique 19th Century engraving comes from a rare illustrated newspaper and art journal printed in 1891. Engraving is titled: " THE YOUNG FALCONER ", by F. CALVERT and is in very good condition. There is a small mark or ear in the upper left hand corner which goes into the image slightly but it is very light and I can only barely see it on the reverse side. This is not detectable on the front side at all and will press out when framed. Engraving is very suitable for framing and measures 7 " x 8 1/4" and the image measures 5" x 7". There is some printing on the reverse side which would be covered when framed.

The actual engraving is much sharper than this scan depicts.

Please see our store for other antiquarian prints on numerous subjects.
