Estimate £600-800

There is a slight kink to the wrist of his left arm, it is possible there may be an old repair, there is a minor casting imperfection under the rim of his hat, there is a slightly flat area on the beak of the bird, there are two splits to the timber on the platform of the plinth and some wear to the gilt decoration on the edge of the plinth and he is lacking an item in his right hand, otherwise in good condition.

Descriptions provided in both printed and on-line catalogue formats do not include condition reports. The absence of a condition statement does not imply that the lot is in perfect condition or completely free from wear and tear, imperfections or the effects of aging. Interested bidders are strongly encouraged to request a condition report on any lots upon which they intend to bid, prior to placing a bid. All transactions are governed by Gorringes Conditions of Sale.
